A BRIDE'S STORY

LAUREN, RADIANT ON HER BIG DAY

Her Aventura wedding, her calm, nerve-free morning, and the 5-star review that left us speechless. The full story inside.

A calm morning, a radiant bride

Some brides arrive with their nerves on edge, and some turn their wedding morning into a calm little celebration. Lauren was one of the second kind. Her wedding day, back on November 2, began with time to spare, with calm, and with that Miami light that makes everything look beautiful.

For Lauren we created a full hair and makeup look designed to last all day: skin prepped with care, luminous makeup that held through tears, hugs and the dance floor, and a hairstyle that stayed flawless until the very end of the night.

> "Days later, Lauren left us a 5-star review that still moves us"

The setting helped: stone, arches and that old-cloister air that turns every photo into a painting. But what stands out most in the images is her: calm, smiling, enjoying every minute before saying "I do."

The first look: he waits for her as she poses between the columns.

On her father's arm, minutes before the ceremony.

A whole wedding, from start to finish

Jesica in her dress: luminous makeup and waves with movement.

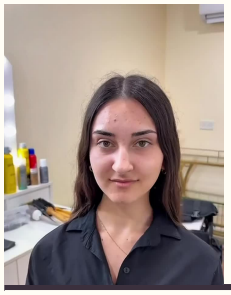

In her robe, makeup freshly done.

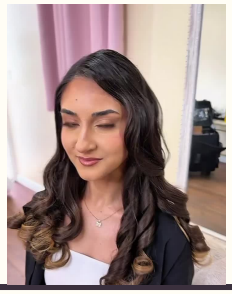

With her two daughters, also glammed up for the big day.

Some weddings rest in the hands of a single artist — and this was one of them: Bianca did Jesica's entire wedding — hair and makeup for the bride and her two daughters, from the first brushstroke to the final touch-up before photos. Three different styles, one same finish: clean, luminous and made to last.

Bianca's work · Hair and makeup for brides and guests. Her signature: a neat, polished finish where everyone still looks like themselves.

THE DETAIL · One daughter's before and after: soft glam and loose waves, the style our bridesmaids ask for most. Natural when she arrived, flawless when she left.

Paola’s smile

Close-up: luminous skin, soft waves and that bouquet of pale roses.

> “Everyone loved the makeup and the hairstyle”
> — Paola, after her wedding

Paola stayed at Hotel Pier 66 in Fort Lauderdale, and we got her ready right there on her wedding morning, November 14. Her look: luminous makeup and loose waves — the kind that lets the smile do the rest.

PLACE OF THE WEEK · PIER SIXTY-SIX — This week we worked at a Fort Lauderdale classic: a historic resort by the marina, with its revolving Pier Top tower and gardens that seem made for wedding photos. That’s where Paola stayed — and you can see why she chose it.

WANT TO BE FEATURED IN THE MAGAZINE?

Every week we tell the story of one of our brides. If you book your wedding with us, your professional photos could be our next cover: ask us when you book and we'll tell you how it works.

Is the trial at my home? Yes: we come to your home or hotel with our full kit. Hair and makeup, always by appointment.

What's included in bridal makeup? A skin-prep ritual, long wear and lashes, so you still look flawless at the end of the party.

Do you travel outside Miami? Of course: Homestead, Fort Lauderdale, Coral Springs and beyond. The travel fee depends on the area, and we'll tell you before you book.

How far in advance should I book? As soon as you have your date: Saturdays in season go fast, and your date is held with the retainer.

What if we're a large group? We bring a team and a timeline designed so everyone is ready on time.

Can I book just hair or just makeup? Yes: every service can be booked separately, for you and for your guests.

Paola on her trial day and her wedding day: that's what the trial is for — arriving at the big day with the look already perfected.

TIP OF THE WEEK

Arrive ready for your appointment: clean face, just your moisturizer, and clean, smooth hair. And bring your inspiration photos: they help us nail your style from the very first minute.

WHAT'S NEW · BLACK FRIDAY

From November 27 to 30: book your 2027 wedding and your trial is free. Gift cards from $100 to $300, valid for one year. DM us to book.

TIP FOR BRIDES

Your touch-up bag for the big day: blotting papers, your lipstick or gloss, a mini pressed powder, tissues and a small mirror. Five minutes with these and you'll look fresh in every photo.

BEAUTY TIP

The week before: hydrate, hydrate, hydrate. Drink your water, moisturize morning and night, and don't try any new product in the last 7 days — your skin should meet nothing new on your wedding week.

Next week: more brides, more team and a new tip.
Thank you for reading.
